Hurlock Elementary School Family Project is a “Hoot!”

The Hurlock Elementary School PBIS team kicked off the school year with its first family project. The theme of this month’s project was, “Owl Bet it’s Going to be a Great School Year.” For this project, students worked with their families to create an owl. Owls were made of various materials: pinecones, bottles, paper, etc. In addition, they were colorfully decorated with paint, buttons, feathers, googly eyes, and much more. The goal is to have our students and their families work together to show their creativity and have some fun each month!

The PBIS team is very pleased with the participation in our first at home monthly family project. The staff and students at HES have enjoyed looking at the owls on display in the media center. Students who participated earned 5 eagle points. Eagle points are used for monthly incentives and school store purchases.

We look forward to seeing the creations for our October pumpkin book character at home project.
